KATIE JENSEN & TOM FIELDER

30 OCTOBER, 2010

BRADLEYS HEAD AMPHITHEATRE, MOSMAN & SERGEANTS MESS, CHOWDER BAY, SYDNEY, NSW

Katie, 26, and British-born Tom, 33, live in Dubai and had guests from around the world attend their lavish Sydney wedding. 'We had more than 600,000km travelled in total between us so we wanted to let everyone know how much we appreciated their huge effort,' says the bride.

SATIN SENSATION 'The dress of my dreams turned out to be a strapless, rich creamy satin dress with a lovely long train and some beautiful beading on the bust-line,' says Katie of her sleek Bridal TM gown. 'I knew I wanted something simple, but without too much beading or lace. Tom is a typical Brit who loves to wear tails at any big occasion, so I also wanted something that was comfortable, elegant and just a little bit fabulous!'

IT'S A SIGN Katie and Tom exchanged vows at the Bradleys Head Amphitheatre in Mosman, complete with stunning views across Sydney Harbour. 'As we pulled up in the car, I glimpsed our sign "Katie and Tom" with our wedding date hanging from a tree, perfectly framed by the Harbour,' the bride recalls. They recreated the beauty of the outdoors on their reception tables using hydrangeas and delphiniums.

OFF WITH A BANG A 12-minute fireworks display lit up the sky above the Sergeants Mess. 'Tom had wanted them, but I told him it was too difficult to organise, so they were a fabulous surprise as they exploded behind us as we cut our croquemouche,' says the bride. Another hit was the photo booth available to guests to print a strip of photos to keep and another to stick in the guest book. 'I often find that people forget about the guest book, so this was a fun way to get lovely notes and memorable photos,' Katie adds.

TABLE STYLE 'Each table was named after an Arabic word or phrase we often use when in Dubai, also with an explanation,' Katie says. 'I put them in white frames.'
